The surprising Vikings again will count on a wide-open offense which they used to smash Atlanta in the season opener and upset Green Bay last week.

Running back Ron Bull is out, but Gale Sayers, who has a bruised back, is expected to start for the Bears, upset by Washington and then smashed 42-0 by Detroit last week. To come out of their tailspin, the Bears will have to jell on defense and quarterbacks Jack x St. Louis . 96 64

Dallas takes the highest-scoring offense, 87 points, and best defense, 20 points, into Philadelphia. The Cowboys might be without defensive tackle Jethro Pugh, but they shouldn't need him against the hapless Eagles.

Johnny Unitas, who has yet to play this season because of a sore elbow, again is expected to turn the quarterbacking duties over to Earl Morrall, and Earl and his mates are expected to have little trouble against Pittsburgh, hit hard by injuries before the season even started.

Washington, which upset Chicago and was upset by New Orleans, will need a big day from passing artist Sonny Jurgensen and will have to stop scrambling Fran Tarkenton to get by New York. The loss of linebacker Vince Costello with a knee injury could hurt the New York pass rush.

Atlanta, which gave Baltimore a tough battle, will have to be tough again against San Francisco, which got a good vacant Canadian lightweight in Cleveland's 2-0 triumph over Minnesota 8-4 behind Rick Monperformance from quarterback boxing championship Friday by Baltimore Friday night in the day's two homers and one by John Brodle in beating St. Louis scoring a unanimous 12-round season finale for both clubs.
